

Fr. Vern Arseneau

Diocese of Joliet, Retired

Fr. Vern Arseneau was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Joliet in 1972, retired from parish assignments in 2017. He has served parishes as associate and pastor, and was the diocesan Director of the Center for Family Ministry. Fr. Vern studied

Spanish, and earned a DM in degree specializing in Sacramental Support for Ecumenical Marriage, organization development and counseling. He is licensed with the State of Illinois and works as a therapist for several modalities of massage and bodywork. Fr. Vern assists at parishes and offers retreats and presentations. He resides in Kankakee, Illinois.