Friday, June 24, is the feast of The Sacred Heart of Jesus. I have a special devotion to this feast day because of a miracle (that's what I call it) that I experienced from saying:

“Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place my trust in you.”

In this letter I would like to share with you my “miracle story.”

When I was taking a class in Statistics at DePaul University, the professor put numbers on the blackboard to use for all the test problems that day. He made his 7 with a line through it and so I read it as a 4. So, I worked all the problems with “4” instead of “7”. Only at the break time, when we checked our answers with one another, did I find out that all my answers were wrong. Sure enough, when we got our papers back the next day, I had an “F”. I think that was my only “F” ever. I was hoping he would give me credit for working all the problems correctly, no such luck. So, I started praying my prayer to the Sacred Heart all through the class. And, guess what? At the end of the class the professor said, “Since this was your first test, I did not record the grade!” Now you know why I call it my “miracle prayer”. I offer it now to you to use when you need a miracle!

Devotion to the Sacred Heart is devotion to Jesus and his love. The human heart has long been a symbol of love. It is a sign or a symbol of both the divine and human love that Jesus has for his Father and for us.

The heart of Jesus also symbolizes the interior life of Jesus which led to his willingness to lay down his life for us. It is a symbol based on our belief in the Incarnation—a firm belief that the second person of the Blessed Trinity became human with all the feelings, emotions, and desires we usually associate with the human heart. It is that human heart—directly united to the divine person—which expresses God’s love in a human way perfectly and purely since Jesus is free from sin.

Aren’t we blessed when to have a place to go to when we need compassion, strength, or encouragement? Yes, the Heart of Jesus.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place my trust in you.
