for this program:

Ending Homelessness the Hesed House Way

What are the root causes of homelessness? What are some of the common misconceptions regarding homelessness and people experiencing it? Joe Jackson, Executive Director of Hesed House in Aurora, will share some background on homelessness and talk through some of these root causes and misconceptions. He will also present Hesed House's history and approach to ending homelessness and outline opportunities for communities and individuals to put faith into action at Hesed House. Time will be reserved for Q&A.

LOCATION:

Nazareth Spirituality Center

Batavia, IL 60510

WHEN: Wednesday, January 18, 2023
9:00 to 10:30 a.m.

Sponsored by:
Servants of the Holy Heart of Mary

Presenter:

Joe Jackson
Executive Director, Hesed House

Joe is blessed to be the Executive Director of Hesed House. He hails from the south side of Chicago, but today he, his wife, two daughters, and too many pets call Oswego, IL home. Joe came to Hesed House from the corporate world seeking more fulfillment in his life and he can safely say he has found it serving our most vulnerable neighbors at Hesed House.
